FOREWORD

Soon work on the new building will begin and the halls of the "old building" will remain only in our memories. No more will we have to walk up and down the old wooden flights of stairs, we will pace through polished corridors to reach our classes and rehearsal. Gone will be the sight of students shivering from the cold walk between buildings. The recessed gratings will no longer recite to the accompaniment from the music room below. The new music room will be soundproof.

But we have some fond memories of this structure which has served us so well. Here we have our suits, here we first learned to write, read, and get along with others; here whole new worlds opened to us through our histories and geographies.

Yes, we have our memories, good and bad, but in order to retain a more permanent record, we, the class of 1937 have prepared this yearbook. We hope, that by this means we may make contemporaries of D. H. S. more precious and more enduring.

CAST B

Mrs. Abigail Fortitude Abbott, a widow of thirty-five, decides to attend Frontier College with her daughter and take advantage of a generous scholarship awarded to anyone whose name is Abigail Fortitude Jordan, her English-parallel daughter, a very much against the plan, but Abby sees no other way to obtain money to see her daughter through college.

It isn't until they reach Frontier, however, that the fun begins. Bob Jackson, campus light, and his young friends are unimpressed with Abby's mature beauty, much to the dismay of Susan and her friends.

To top it all, Abby becomes romantically involved with Professor Michaels, old of all the girls on campus and particular friend of Susan. Abigail Susan is determined to break up the romance and disapproving Dean Gillingham, who wishes a publicly stated, is determined to expel Abby from Frontier.

Mostly amusing situations result and the subject is a charming one.

SKIP DAY

Thirty-five Seniors, accompanied by class sponsors Berg and Shore, and off to sleep after a night-long train ride, arrived at Chicago's Northwestern Railway Station on Monday morning, May 13. From there they were whisked off to see the sights of the Windy City, which included the Museum of Science and Industry, Museum of Natural History, Lincoln Park Zoo, Crown Point, Hull House, Madison Street Suit Row, Grant Park, Midway Plaisance, University of Chicago Campus, downtown financial and theatrical districts, Ship's Street, and Chicago's famous skyline as viewed from Lake Shore Drive. Their meals were provided at the Gateway Restaurant of the Northwestern Station.

When out from the very full day of sight-seeing, museum hunting, and picture taking, the seniors went to sleep promptly on the return trip. They arrived in Odell, tired but happy, as time to attend Yumby's class.

JUNIOR - SENIOR BANQUET

Friday, April 26, the Juniors, Seniors and faculty members were escorted by elves and pixies into an enchanting land of make-believe. Multi-colored cardboard butterflies fluttered from the blue crepe-paper sky, and jolly cardboard elves cavorted in a game of leap-frog over food stools. Organ music by a good fairy (Rosalie Neutaman) was enjoyed throughout the fairyland supper, and, to make the fantasy complete, there was a wishing well. The elves and pixies served their honored guests well, because soon everyone was replete and well-content. An evening of entertainment, the fairy queen (Sandra Higby) announced, was then in store for them. A royal command performance was given by some little people from fairyland. The fairy queen then decreed a royal ball and everyone danced to the music of the Rhythm Hawks from Ida Grove. But finally the clock struck twelve and the guests were forced to come back to earth.

They left with a little fairyland stardust still clinging to them and the memory of that delightful evening will remain with them for a long time.

HOMECOMING

Homecoming began September 28 in the traditional manner with a pep meeting. The student body then marched downtown to display their enthusiasm to the businessmen and patrons.

At the game in the evening Audrey Cowllham and Othel Johnson were crowned Queen and King of '56. The Royal Court consisted of Gloria Girman, Nancy Neville, Judy Ogden, Bonnie Snyder, Jim Howard, Grant Langley, Clifford Schroeder, and Don Taylor. All Seniors, they were elected by popular vote.

Crown bearers were Dean Bengford and Sharon Gronemeyer.

Movie didn't quite succeed in dousing our good spirits since the evening was successfully climaxed by a homecoming dance in the gym to the music of Johnny Galvin.

Credit is due to the marching band and the committee in charge, who spent long hours in preparation for the event. Members of the committee were: Mr. Stafford, Mr. Shaw, and Miss Bruce, faculty; Ronald Oxendale, Dick Duffy, Arlene Purdy, Judy Ogden, Sandra Higby, Josephine Gunderson, Dean Johnson, Don Cowllham, Arlene Howard, Shirley Buehler, Herb Turin, Wellman Lindstrom, students.

THE TROJAN STAFF

In May of 1956 the juniors elected Gloria Girvan and Othel Johnson to be editors of the yearbook for '57. Cliff Schroeder received the demanding position of business manager. Cliff later proved to be indispensable during the magazine sales campaign and was often seen doing more than his duty, going the rounds with our advertisers, Jim Howard and Grant Lange.

Much credit is due to our conscientious layout editors, Audrey Cowilham, Nancy Neville, and Arlene Purdy. The appearance of each page is the result of their patient work.

Jean Hanson, Myrna Lange, and Marilyn Summers handled efficiently the job of typing copy for the printer. Helen Kessler and Dwayne Wingert lined up classes for Mr. Buntruck's busy camera and Dwayne took many fine pictures at special events.

Judy Ogden, Willard Johnson, and Ronald Oxendale put their heads together and came up with some new ideas for the annual Sales Carnival.

All this could not have been accomplished without the invaluable aid of Miss Bruce, to whom we are so grateful for expert advice and assistance.

We have striven to make this 1957 Trojan the best ever, and we hope you will think our time was well spent.

The School Chronicle men, which is published every week in the Odebolt Chronicle, is collected throughout the week by the staff members. This year the staff was made up of volunteers from the junior and senior classes. The school paper in the paper is edited by the group to inform the public as to what is being done in the next few grades.

The editor of the School Chronicle was Norma Stiles, who was elected to this position the previous year. All of the staff members have worked with enthusiasm all year to make the school paper a success. Those who have read the School Chronicle this year of '36 and '37 have found that they did a fine job.

The staff aimed to keep the public up-to-date on the school activities and at the same time would like to thank the Odebolt Chronicle for their cooperation and for taking their time to make the school paper a success.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The Future Farmers of America is an integral part of the vocational agriculture course. It is an extra-curricular activity having its origin and root in a different part of the school curriculum. It is based on the following motto: "Learning to do, doing to learn; learning to live and living to serve." Its original student organization arose from a basis of self-government under adult counsel and guidance from the F. F. A. The foundation upon which the F. F. A. organization is built includes leadership and character development, sportsmanship, improved agriculture, improved recreation, citizenship and patriotism. The aims and purposes of the Future Farmers are to develop competent rural and agricultural leadership, to strengthen the confidence of farm boys and young men in themselves and their work, and to create more interest in the intelligent choice of a farming occupation. A further aim and purpose is the development of individual farming programs and establishment in farming. These encourage members to improve the farm home and its surroundings and to participate in worthy undertakings for the improvement of agriculture.

The officers for the year 1956-1957 are: President, Marie Lamark; Vice-President, Frank Nevada; Secretary, Marlene Turry; Treasurer, Richard Thayer; Reporter, Jim Howard; and Sentinel, Darrell Herring.

There are 28 members in this chapter—7 freshmen, 10 sophomores, 8 juniors, and 3 seniors, and it meets the first and third Monday of every month. This year some of the members took a trip to the National Convention at Kansas City and are planning to go to the State Convention A. Galt King was elected this year in order to raise money for the chapter. Larry Nevada and Jim Howard receive the two awarded Duane gifts. All in all, 1956-'57 has been a very good F. F. A. year.

FOOTBALL

On August 24, thirty Colts and Arthur boys turned out for the first scheduled practice session of the 1956 football season. Complying with custom, the first week of practice was mostly conditioning and fundamentals, and with hard work for everyone.

On September 14, the opposable was performed. West Lake beat Colts for the first time in thirteen years, 0 to 27. The next Friday however, the boys bounced back to defeat Kingley 20 to 6.

In the two following weeks the Trojans lost their homecoming game to a tough Manilla team, 2 to 19, and easily rolled over Concessionville 28 to 0.

On October 12 the Colts eleven suffered a heart-breaking defeat at the hands of Oreos, 7 to 12. In the minds of many this was the outstanding game of the season in spite of the score. With a break or two the Trojans might have beaten Oreos, and it could easily have been the turning point of the season.

The next four games spelled four defeats for the Trojans, as they entered into the tougher portion of their schedule. They lost to Manilla, 6 to 39; Sac City, 0 to 35; Ida Grove, 0 to 28; and Hoboken, 6 to 49.

Although a two wins-seven losses season is not considered successful, it must be remembered that Hoboken played nine very good teams, and that some very fine play was shown by the Trojans. Colts need not be ashamed of their 1956 football record.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Was 18—Last 7

The Trojannes played one of the toughest schedules in history this season. Two teams on the schedule, Sumner and Ida Grove, had all their team back from the previous year when they went to the state tournament. Also on the schedule were three other teams that had played in district tournaments the year before.

The girls got off to a slow start, but gained momentum as the season progressed.

This was the first time in the past six years the Trojannes failed to win the Sed County Tournament. The Trojannes defeated Lake View in the first round, in the same finals Early defeated Ogdahl 47 to 44, when the Trojannes hit only 19 per cent from the field. Early went on to win the tournament by defeating Schaller. Ogdahl defeated Wal Lake 52 to 38 in a consolation game.

The 1956-57 season also marked the first time the Ogdahl girls team was invited to perform at a clinic. The Trojannes gave a demonstration in the afternoon, at which time, on team offense in the evening they played and defeated a very tough Hurley team 47 to 35.

In sectional tournaments play the Trojannes appeared to be a tough contender, and proved themselves to be in the finals. Ogdahl drew a bye in the first round and played and defeated Lake City in the second round 43 to 34. This set the stage for the game of this year, meeting rival Ida Grove in the finals. Ida Grove, with its state tournament team from the previous year, had a past record averaging 39 points a game. Myrna Lange, Audrey Pursh, Audrey Coakum, Margaret Johnson, and Sandra Higley combined their efforts to hold her to only five baskets from the field. Three of these came with only three minutes left in the ball game. This guard combination deserves credit for doing such a fine job of stopping Ida Grove. Ogdahl 38 to 49, but it was a game with only one or two points difference most of the way.

In the front court for the Trojannes were Jean Hanson, Judy Ogden, Audrey Mervin and Berne Rossch. They combined their efforts for a 57.6 offensive average. In the guard court the defensive average was 50.3 points per game.

High scorer for the season was Jean Hanson with 602 points in 23 games for a 26.1 point per game average. Judy Ogden was next with 450 points in 23 games for a 19.5 point per game average. Judy was also the toughest rebounder in the squad.

Five seasons completed their competition this year. Their last is sure to be felt very much. They are Judy Ogden, Arlene Pursh, Jean Hanson, Audrey Coakum and Myrna Lange.

Prospects for next year are not too bright with a number of young girls in line for positions. However, the Trojannes for 1957-58 could be pretty tough if they develop enough spirit and drive.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

The Trojans, during their 1956-57 season won 8 out of 23 games. A lack of uniform scoring was their greatest deficit, with Othel Johnson, Dean Johnson and Jim Howard carrying most of the burden throughout the season.

The most humbled victory was the defeat of Lytton in the Sol County Tournament after a previous game which Lytton won by 31 points.

The season scoring was as follows:

	Total Points	Average per game
Othel Johnson	432	18.8
Dean Johnson	259	11.3
Jim Howard	223	9.7
Bill Stock	89	3.9
Wellman Lindstrom	84	3.6

The graduates of this year will be greatly missed in the year to follow.

Good luck, Trojans. The team next year can be sure of the backing and support of those who have played on the Trojan court in the past.

TRACK SEASON — 1957

The Trojans had one of its best track seasons in recent years. They placed fourth in the Hayden Buleys, seventh in the Sun Relays, fourth in the Muzzle Valley Conference, first in the Toronto Invitational at Stone Lake and third in the district meet at Hudson.

The other record was set by the two-mile relay in a very low time of 8:36.5. The runners were Bob Eas, Tom Maltzman, Richard Kormada, and Dean Johnson.

Seven boys qualified for the state outdoor track meet held at Drake stadium in Des Moines. They were Othel Johnson, Dean Johnson, Teil Meyers, and the relay team.

The story opens with a fairly staid banker who needs some sort of creative release and finds it in lecturing to local high school classes on the need for self-fulfillment. It quickly develops, however, that the banker's youngest daughter, Ginger, has been very much impressed by her father's exhortations. She has further decided that her own true fulfillment can best be realized by going out for the football team. Any number of complications result: the father's job is jeopardized because the bank president doesn't approve; the girl's elder sisters insist that their social life has been blighted—especially Joan, whose boy friend is captain of the football team; and the girl football player finds that playing football and being a girl aren't always compatible, particularly when her own boy friend disapproves of what she's doing. After any number of riotous mishaps, all ends on a happily tender note with the family going out to see Jeannie in the high school play.

"Synopsis"—"Father of the Bride"

Mr. Banks learns that one of the young men he has seen occasionally around the house is about to become his son-in-law. Daughter Kay announces the engagement out of a whim. Mrs. Banks and the two boys are happy, but Banks is a bit dither. The groom-to-be, Buckley Durstler, appears on the scene and Banks realizes that the engagement is serious. The wedding is planned as a very "simple" affair, but as time progresses, more and more complications develop. The list of guests grows until there are nearly two hundred more than the church will hold for the wedding and the home will hold for the reception. Mr. Banks finds himself digging into his pocket for new clothes, flowers, chairs, arrangements, eight bridesmaids' dresses, hairdresser, caterer, photographer, and food. The climax of the play comes when Buckley himself objects to the way things are getting out of hand. He storms from the house and Kay angrily tells him there will be no wedding. The play ends happily, however, after a reconciliation is made and the robust bride leaves for the church on the arm of her father.

Senior Class History

On the warm sunny day of September 4, 1944, 24 proud little boys and girls marched up the steps of the old building to Miss Ketch's kindergarten room. As she called roll Dennis Bengford, Diane Bengford, Marjorie Bates, Janet Bremer, Franklin Crossman, Robert Deul, Richard Duffy, Thomas Erickson, Janice Gustafson, Jean Hanson, Ruth Heubers, James Howard, Joyce Mandersack, Thomas Mathison, Ronald Mun, Kyle McGonigle, Larry Neville, Nancy Neville, Jackie Nizick, Judy Ogden, Harold Orendick, Alvina Purdy, Bernice Snyder, and Carolanne Stone were present. Our first big treat was the daily lunch which consisted of milk and Graham crackers. One of our greatest accomplishments was our "Blythe Band" which supplied plenty of noise and music! We were a large part of our time either in the little red church or the school. The rest of the time was spent eating, laughing things apart or taking our naps in our high. As the year drew to an end, things were more subdued. We agreed upon the fact that the year wasn't a complete waste of time and effort.

In our move across the hall we lost Dennis Bengford, Diane Bengford, Janet Bremer, Dick Duffy, Janice Gustafson, Ruth Heubers, Jack Nizick, Bernice Snyder, and Connie Stone, but gained Clifton Alvord, Richard Sam, Gloria Gervin, Rachelle Hixon, Richard Kennedy, Bill Peters, and Mildred Trudick. Our new teacher was Mrs. Holgren who thrilled us by allowing us to sing "Hallelujah and Grete" for our proud parents. This production completed the year and we were ready to move on.

In our trip down the corridor we lost Marjorie Bates, Richard Sam, Frank Cranston, Kyle McGonigle, Bernice Marr, Larry Neville and Alvina Purdy. To make up for our losses we gained Dennis Huff, Willard Johnson, Clifford Mathison, Jim Murren, Morris Murren, Kathleen Mathison, Eugene O'Brien, and Virgil O'Brien. Miss Johnson was our new teacher. Our little move was the pride and joy of the class. It helped us to make change and learn the values of money.

We were then ready to move back across the hall. In our move we lost the O'Brien boys, Eugene and Virgil, but gained Irl Alvord, Nelson Schmeckel, and Muriel Schreiner. Our teacher this year was Miss Van Wick. A memorable event was our trip to the Home Economics room where we made cottage cheese and drank butter-milk. During the year we were shocked to hear of the death of Bill Deul, one of our classmates. But time did not stand still. We were ever ready to move on to fourth grade.

We lost Willard Johnson, Clifford Mathison, and Muriel Schreiner, but gained Lois Gustafson, Orlaf Johnson, Dan Taylor, Dick Watersburg, and Miss Chapman, our new teacher. The year passed quickly and we were soon ready to move upstairs to the fifth grade room.

When we reached the second floor, we found we had lost Clifton Alvord, James Murren and Kathleen Nelson. We made up for our losses by getting Gary Swethers, Keith Erickson, Janette Lohbuhl, and Kyle McGonigle. We all liked Miss Bidarsian because we spent so much time in art. But all the time we were moving up, getting closer to the top with each step.

Our next move was to Miss Banning's sixth grade room. In this move we lost Gary Swethers, Janette Lohbuhl, and Dick Watersburg. But new faces were those of Audrey Cressman, Sandra Handson, DeWayne Heubers, Larry Kuster, Grant Langley, Janice Peck, and Richard Young. The year moved quickly and the first thing we knew Miss Banning had changed her name to Miss Ketch.

Our next move was the biggest we had ever made. We were now in the big assembly and could be called part of the J. High. Things were much different, three grades in one big room, only four subjects, having eight periods a day, and four different teachers. New members who took the step with us were Bill Allen, Helen Kessler, Curtis Lagergard, and Norma Siles. We lost Audrey Cressman, DeWayne Heubers, Rachelle Hixon, Dennis Huff, James Peck, and Richard Young. Seventh grade was hard to get used to but we finally made the adjustment.

When we reached 6th grade we found we had lost Bill Allen and Joseph Heubers, but we gained Roger Fineman. Eighth grade was much the same as seventh grade when we got ready to move again, we stopped to rest a bit, and some of our teachers during the past two years. They were Mr. Fisher, Miss Anderson, Mr. Hammar, Mrs. Peterson, Miss Hammar, and Mr. Baum. We were now ready to continue.

Freshman! We were still in the old building but we felt more important with that name of Freshman. Two of our kindergarten pals from St. Martin's school were with us once again. They were Dick Duffy and Bernice Snyder. Other new faces from other schools were Advanore Bergman, Dennis Coburn, Janette Lohbuhl, Marie Lovink, Barbara Lunden, Don Lindgren, Ted Morris, Larry Neville, Clifford Schreiber, Morris Sommer, Irene Taggart, Frank Vaughn, and Deayne Winger. When we reached again we heard we had lost Keith Erickson, Richard Kurenski, and Curtis Lappagard. This year we went to the new building for some of our classes. We were really getting to be somebody, we thought.

The next year we were elevated to Senior High. We were Sophomores now, a little green on the high school methods, but we were in high school already. In our move to the new building we lost Lily Alvord, Larry Kuster, Don Lindgren, Bill Peters, and Muriel Schreiner. To make up for our many losses we added Willard Johnson, Myrna Lange, and Larry Woffelmer, to our number. Things were a little different now in the new building. We had rooms for our books and coats. The rooms were new to us. We were divided into home rooms with the Juniors and Seniors. We could participate in more things, such as the high school sports and dramatics. Every day seemed to bring something new to us, but we soon became part of the hustle and bustle.

Soon we were Juniors. Just one more step and we would be on the top. Going from our Sophomores to our Junior year we lost Advanore Bergman, Janette Lohbuhl, Morris Murren, and Mildred Trudick. Our new classmates were Evelyn Mathison, Steven Kinney, Steven Larson, Alvina Purdy, Dennis Sevel, Terry Sartin, and Doris Terry. During the year we lost Doris Terry and Terry Sartin. Things got underway and we were soon working on the Junior Class play entitled "The Little Dog Laughed". The next big event of the year was the Junior-Senior Banquet with the theme of "Moonlight and Roses". It turned out to be a big success. The year ended and we were now on the top step. We were finally Seniors.

At the beginning of our Senior year we numbered thirty-seven in all. There were Dennis Coburn, Audrey Cressman, Dick Duffy, Roger Fineman, Gloria Gervin, Lois Gustafson, John Hanson, Jim Howard, Orlaf Johnson, Willard Johnson, Helen Kessler, Sharon Kinney, Myrna Lange, Grant Langley, Marie Lovink, Steven Larson, Barbara Lunden, Irla Mandersack, Morris Murren, Kyle McGonigle, Ted Morris, Tom Mathison, Larry Neville, Nancy Neville, Judy Ogden, Ronald O'Brien, Alvina Purdy, Nelson Schmeckel, Clifford Schreiber, Dennis Sevel, Bernice Snyder, Marjorie Sommer, Norma Siles, Irene Taggart, Dan Taylor, Larry Woffelmer, and Deayne Winger. We lost Tom Erickson, Evelyn Holstrom, and Frank Vaughn. Our only gain was Morris Murren, whom we lost at the second semester. Seven members have gone through their entire school course together. They are Jean Hanson, Jim Howard, Joyce Mandersack, Tom Mathison, Nancy Neville, Judy Ogden, and Ronald O'Brien. We've all had our ups and downs but everything always works out in the end. In closing, we would just like to say to all underclassmen, "Take your time. It goes faster than you think."

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Our yearbook production is just a little like that on an assembly line. At the beginning are Mr. Burt Hedstrom of the American Yearbook Company, and Miss Rosmer Bruce, yearbook adviser, giving us expert advice.

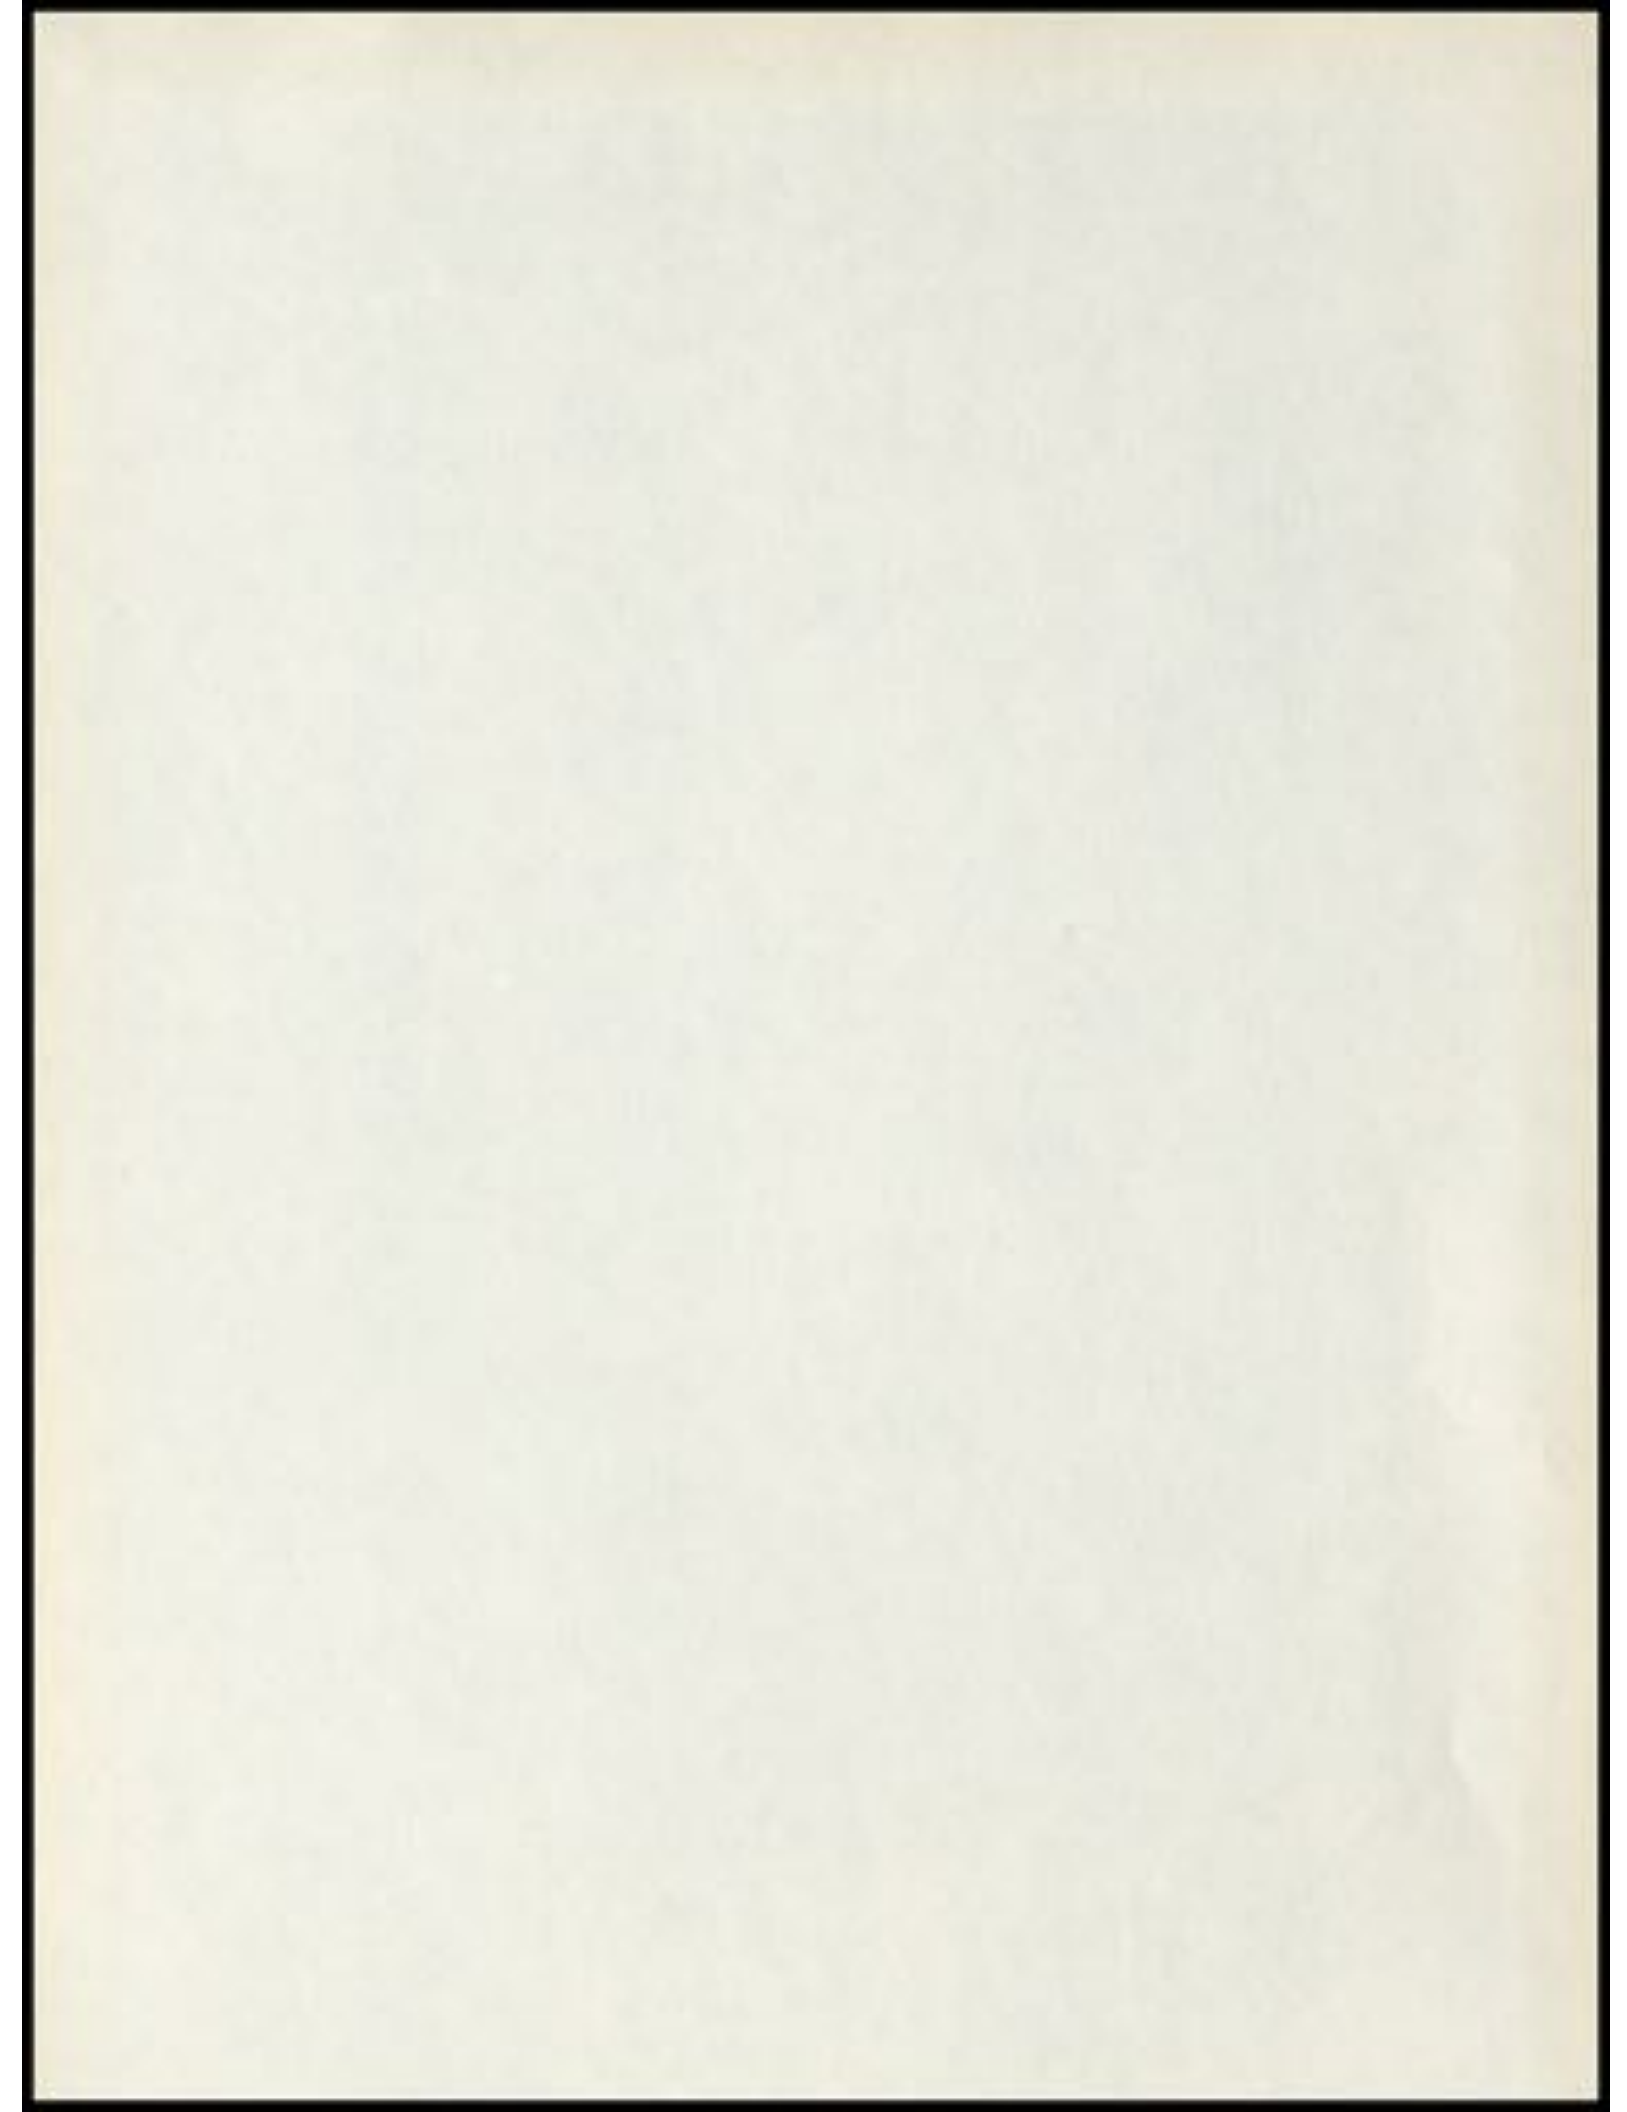

As our book begins to take shape, we find Mr. Kermit Buntrock of Storm Lake taking our individual and group pictures, and our layout editors fitting each of the pictures into the proper place.

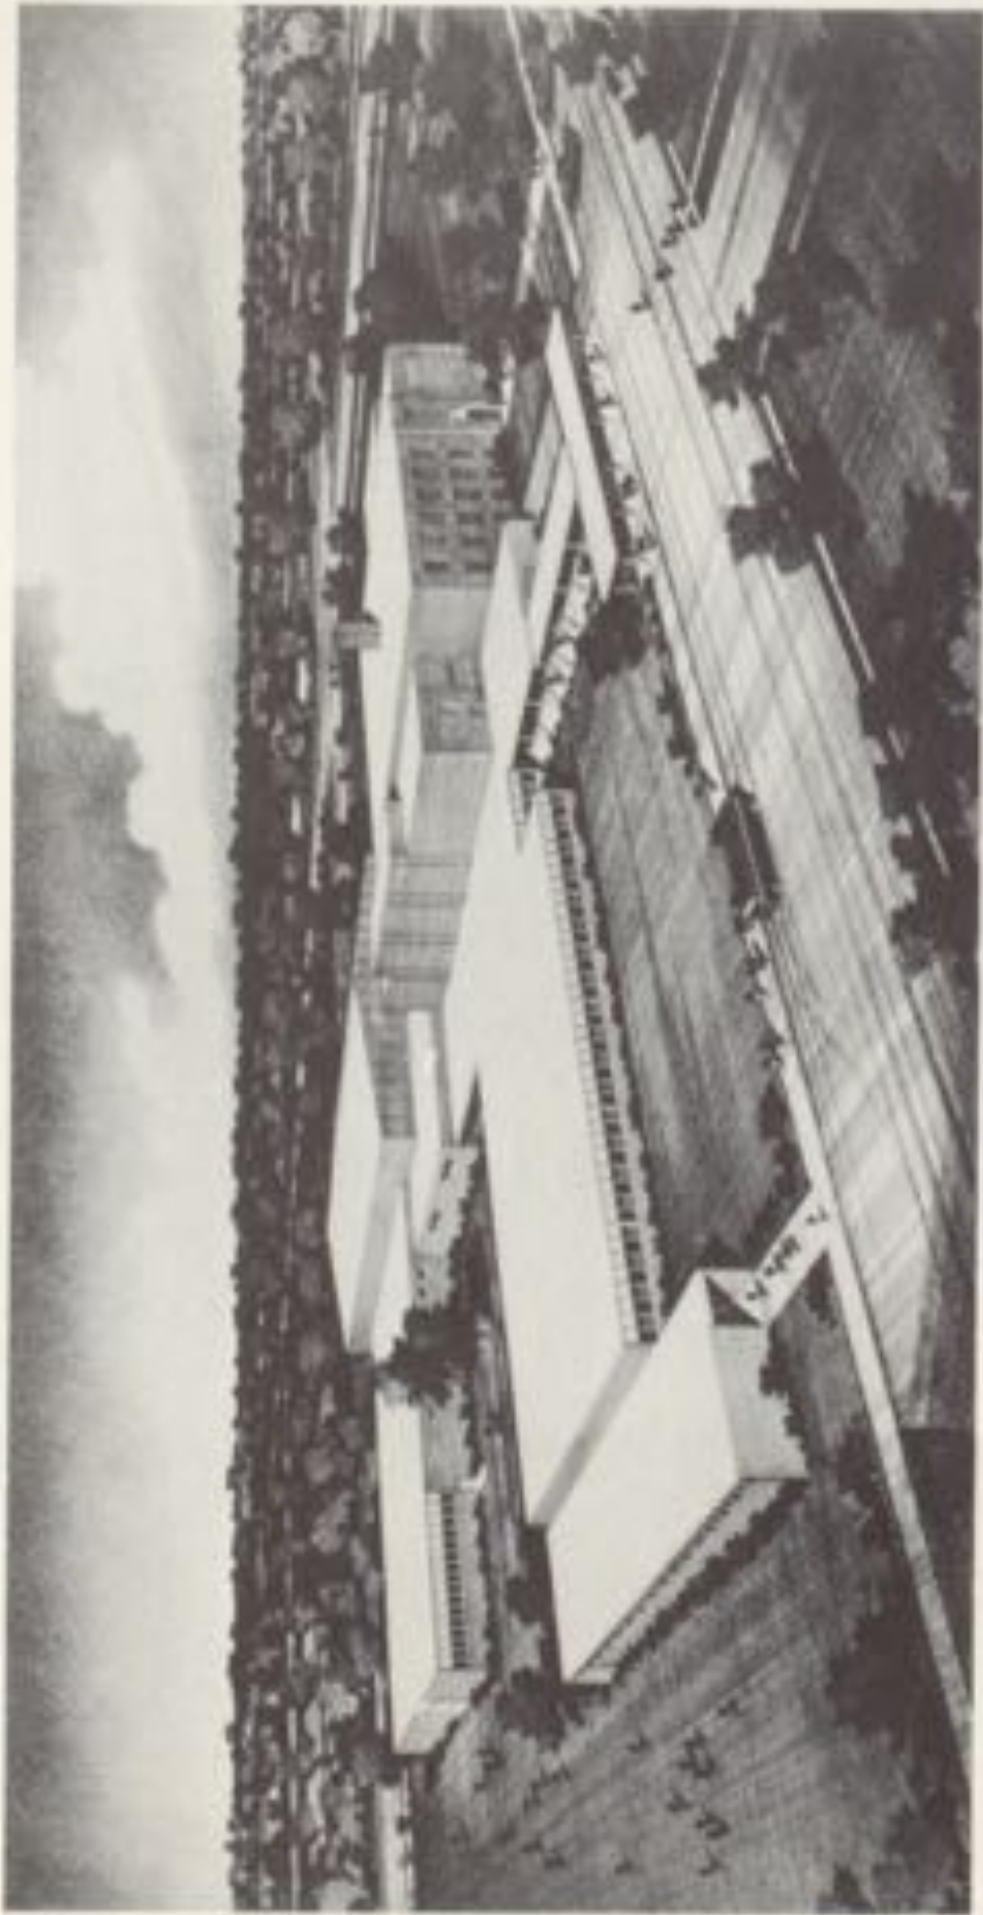

As we near completion of our task, the Odebolt Chronicle is doing the printing of all copy. Then back to the layout again, for the final work of pasting pictures and printed copy on mounting boards for each page. The completed pages are then sent to the American Yearbook Company at Hannibal, Missouri, where they are lithographed and bound into the completed book.

All this activity is made possible through the combined efforts of these indispensable people, and the financial contributions of Odebolt and Arthur businessmen. We thank them all.
