Dedication

MRS. EUGENE E. REYNOLDS

We, the Senior Class, dedicate this yearbook to Mrs. Dorothy Reynolds, our fourth grade teacher. Mrs. Reynolds taught in Odebolt-Arthur from the fall of 1951 until her death in the fall of 1959. Ours would have been her first class to graduate from high school.

We are grateful for having been permitted to know such a fine person, and for having had her as a teacher and guide during our school days.

Senior Class Play

On Friday, May 20, 1960, the senior class presented THE CHARM SCHOOL by Alice D. Miller and Robert Milton. The story concerns a young automobile salesman, who, upon learning that he has inherited a girls' school, decides to run it himself according to his own ideas. His chief idea is that each girl should be taught charm above all else. This leads to several humorous situations. In the end he gives up the school and agrees to wait until one of his more precocious students is of marriageable age.

The stage was decorated as a rose garden with a white picket fence almost covered by multi-colored roses. The main corridor was also decorated as a lounge with pink hearts and musical notes prominently displayed.

One outgrowth of school reorganization is that, since we no longer have rural districts which required election of a director in the spring, the date of school elections has been changed from March to September. This change makes it possible for a new board of directors to become familiar with their jobs before plans must be made for the coming school year.

Junior Class Play

The first presentation by the speech department for the 1959-1960 school year was the junior class play, THE CURIOUS SAVAGE, by John Patrick, on Tuesday, November 10, 1959.

Mrs. Savage has been left several million dollars by her husband, and she is determined to make the best use of it, in spite of the efforts of her grown-up stepchildren to get their hands on it. Knowing the wealth is in negotiable bonds, and seeing they cannot get hold of it, the family commits her to a sanatorium hoping to "bring her to her senses." In the sanatorium she meets several misfits who cannot adjust to society. She soon realizes, however, that she can find true happiness in their make-believe world and wishes to remain. When no reason for her to remain is found, Mrs. Savage is finally persuaded to leave the sanatorium. She will carry out her plans for a fund to make others happy with the money she has kept from her greedy stepchildren by several hilarious schemes.

The cast included:

THE GUESTS—Florence, Jean Merter; Hannibal, John Noyd; Fairy May, LaDonna Gehring; Jeffrey, David Pair; Mrs. Paddy, Sandra Kessler.

THE FAMILY—Titus, Ed Skarin; Samuel, Leon Robe; Lily Belle, Linda Carstensen; Ethel, Malinda Reik.

THE STAFF—Miss Wilhelmina, Diane Lundblad; Dr. Emmert, Stan Dublinske.

Young George Pair was used in the final scene of this play.

QUEEN AUDREY AND KING JAMES

Rain was tearing on October 2, the day of homecoming, but it didn't dampen the spirit of OAH'S students. It did interfere with some of their planned activities, however. Due to the rain they were unable to have their spirited march downtown and later on in the evening it prevented the senior band from presenting their half-hour show, "The Summit."

Pre-game ceremonies started by the band playing "To the Colors" and "The Star Spangled Banner." Following the flag-raising ceremony, the royal party then walked out onto the field. They were: Audrey Lamink and Jim Wieberg; Sandra Neville and Bill Brucker; Mary Alice Lindberg and Roger Rector; Pat Smichsen and Ken Wellerbock; JaNeil Iversen and Norman Bergman. They had been popularly elected by the student body. A sealed envelope containing the names of the Homecoming King and Queen was opened in the broadcasting booth and the names of those elected were announced over the loudspeaker. Superintendent Ogden took the crowns from the satin pillows carried by the kindergarten attendants, Karen Richardson and Dennis Sykes, and placed them on the heads of Audrey Lamink and Jim Wieberg.

The royal couple led the Grand March at the dance after the game.

Although it rained throughout the entire game, the Trojans won a thrilling victory over Corvallisville, 7 to 6.

Football

The Odeball-Arthur football turnout was the largest in recent years. The squad numbered forty-three.

We lacked over-all size and speed this year. The prospects for next year indicate a more successful season.

A special thanks to the seven seniors, who have helped to lay the groundwork for a better brand of football in the future.

WON 13 — LOST 5

The basketball season indicated that we could develop into a fine Odbert-Arthur team. We did not reach our peak performance, however, and were defeated in the first round of the Sectional Tournament.

Sandra Neville, our outstanding senior forward, deserved a great deal of credit for our offensive scoring. Lois Thies and Sharon Ollberding, senior guards, were key performers. Juniors Sandra Kessler, Diane Lundblad and Betty Hanson will be back next year. They gained valuable experience as regular team members. Yvonne Lange and Jahlil Iverson, senior reserve guards, will be missed next year.

Joan Frey, Karen Johnson, Rachelle Grove and Diane Buehler will be depended upon to replace the graduating seniors.

Track

Cross-country running is gaining in popularity around our vicinity. The fall track team competed in many of these cross-country meets, and a swirl of success was the reward.

The fall team finished first in the Blackhawk meet at Lake View, fourth in the State Cross-Country Meet at Ames, and sixth in the Council Bluffs meet, a meet primarily for Class AA schools.

Outstanding performers on the fall team were senior, Larry Webber; junior, Dennis Wagner; sophomores, Wood, Grant, Dennis Anderson, and Gary Bramer; and freshman, Bryce Johnson.

This spring 52 candidates reported for track. Most of these boys were underclassmen, and many showed promising talent. They placed a disappointing fourth in the Maple Valley Conference Meet, but many individual performances throughout the season were far above average.

Don Hoelling set a new school record in the low hurdles with a fast 20.3 time, almost a whole second better than the previous record. Ken Schramm bettered his own school record in the shot put, with a throw of 45' 10 $\frac{3}{4}$ ".

The team gained valuable experience this year, and many outstanding performances can be expected in the years to come.

The one-act play that was used as our speech contest entry was A. A. Milne's "THE MAN IN THE BOWLER HAT," in the words of the author, "a terribly exciting little affair." Mary and John, a very ordinary English couple, have always dreamed of being swept up in a daring, adventurous escapade. They are—for awhile.

The cast included: John, John Noyd; Mary, LaDonna Gehring; Hero, Stan Dublinske; Heroine, Pat Sonichsen; Chief Villain, Jim Gustafson; Bad Man, Rodney Gray; Man in the Bowler Hat, Kent Ogden.

Senior High Library-Study Hall in North Wing.

During the summer of 1955, the old study hall on the second floor of the high school building was remodeled for the use of the Business Education Department. The north end is partitioned to make a valuable work room; the classroom to the south is equipped with combination desks and swivel chairs so it can be used both for Typewriting and for Bookkeeping and Shorthand.

room between it and the Junior High Science rooms.

Home-making department at end of North wing, equipped with four unit kitchens, one wall oven, refrigerator-freezer, a sink with washer and dryer, and ten electric sewing machines.

What used to be the Bookkeeping and Typewriting rooms on the first floor of the high school building have been converted into an English and Speech classroom. The partition was removed and a stage built in the south end of the room.

Junior High Science is located where the Home-making department was, on the first floor of the high school building.

The last two periods on Monday have been spent in organizing the Odessa-Arthur Community school news which is printed weekly in the Odessa Chronicle. Not only does the School Chronicle help to inform the public about the activities of the twelve grades, but it makes it possible for the students to enjoy one of the many activities of our school.

It has been quite typical to see the members of the staff go tearing down the halls in order to collect their news. Also it has been a familiar sight to see Karen and Judy scratching their heads, puzzled about what they can write about for the editorial and feature respectively. But, never fail, they always come up with something.

We, the School Chronicle Staff, wish to thank Miss Bruce for her guidance throughout the year and for her patience, while she calmly corrected all the misspelled words or tried to make out a word which was an error hole.

We also wish to thank the Odessa Chronicle Staff for printing the School Chronicle for us.

Karen M. Johnson, the editor of the 1959-1960 School Chronicle, was elected to the position in May, 1960. The others volunteered for their jobs. Every member of the staff has truly enjoyed the work he was assigned.

Acknowledgment

The 1960 Trojan Staff wishes to express its appreciation to those who helped with this yearbook. I, personally, would like to thank my tireless staff for giving of their time and effort. And along with that goes our thanks to Miss Bruce for her faithful guidance and counseling.

Our attractive title pages were drawn by Joan Johnson.

The pictures were taken by Bert Cannon and Mr. Lundgren, an associate of his from Cedar Falls. A hearty thanks to the patient teachers for dismissing the students whenever they were needed.

Part of the financing was accomplished through our magazine sales and our annual carnival. Our Magazine Sales of $1800 topped all other records. Thanks to all who attended, our annual carnival on April Fool's day was a success.

The remaining finances needed came from our many generous advertisers. Thank you for helping to make this book possible.

After the lay-out people, the boys on advertising, and the typists had finished their year-long task, we turned our rough copy over to the Odebolt Chronicle. They made our copy into this fine book—our goal.
