Dedication

Although published in 1917,
this may express the thoughts
of our boys in Vietnam today,
to whom we dedicate this yearbook:

AN AMERICAN CREED

I am an American.

I believe in the dignity of labor, the sanctity of the home, and the high destiny of democracy.

Courage is my birthright, justice my ideal, and faith in humanity my guiding star.

By the sacrifice of those who suffered that I might live, who died that America might endure, I pledge my life to my country, and the liberation of mankind.

Homecoming—October 14, 1966

The O-A Trojans and fans had a wet and wonderful weekend in mid-October. The whole student body was keyed up and ready for a long-awaited victory over the Hawks of Ida Grove.

The showers let up enough Thursday so that the Trojans were cheered on by the student body at the traditional Homecoming bonfire. At the bonfire the candidates for Homecoming King and Queen were presented to the students. They were: Rosemary Dinges, Linda Down, Carol Friday, Lynn Johnson, Bonnie Sellstrom, Rodney Einspahr, Jim McGonigle, Mark Mehrhoff, Dale Mohr, and Roger Thrailkill.

Early the next morning, Mr. Peterson, Mr. Harris, and a bevy of O-A students went through the ritual of hanging huge signs across the streets downtown. The schoolhouse was plastered with posters, including the homeroom posters for the annual contest. This year all the posters were to be three-dimensional. The seventh grade walked away with first prize for their poster, "House of the Conqueror", much to the dismay of the senior high and to the delight of the junior high.

In the early afternoon, the rains came and the wind started to blow. Reports from downtown were that the platform for the crowning was totally ruined and the huge signs had, after dripping runny paint on all who dared to pass beneath them, fallen apart and dropped to the ground. Needless to say, the crowning took place in the gym instead of downtown. Mr. Ogden removed the royal crowns from the pillows carried by Connie Linman and Rodney Schnackel, our kindergarten royalty, and placed them on the heads of Carol Friday and Dale Mohr. The rain stopped in time for the royal party to ride in state in their convertibles to the downtown site, followed by the band, the cheerleaders, and a somewhat chilled but enthusiastic student body.

That night, as Queen Carol and her attendants were driven around the football field, it began to drizzle. After they had been escorted by King Dale and his attendants to the middle of the football field for presentation to the crowd, they stood facing the flag as the band played the National Anthem. Just then the rain came down in sheets. Within minutes, the field was deserted by all save the football teams, and the schoolhouse had become a haven for one soaked band, one wet Queen, and four dripping attendants.

The rain managed to dampen everything except the Trojans' spirit, and they went on to defeat the Hawks 24-12. After the game, the King, Queen, and their court led the Grand March at the Homecoming Dance. The Chessmen of Wayne State supplied the music, and all agreed that a Homecoming had never been better (nor wetter!!!).

The Odebolt-Arthur football team this year went through what every school must encounter periodically, and that was the tough task of rebuilding.

With the opening of practice, Coach Miller found seventy-six eager Trojans reporting. However, only one regular was available from the previous season. With the bumpy road ahead, the Trojans put their noses to the grindstone, hoping to gain experience and victories for the fame of Odebolt-Arthur High School.

The gridgers did gain the needed experience, but the season was short on victories. The team couldn't promise a victory in each game, but they did promise and deliver four quarters of exciting, hard-fought football. Their satisfaction with the season was derived from that old axiom, "It's not whether you win or lose, it's how you play the game."

With each game played, the gridgers showed tremendous improvement; and in each game lost "Lady Luck" may well have been the deciding factor.

In post-season balloting, Rodney Einspahr and Dale Mohr were elected team captains. The lone returning regular, Dale Mohr, was also given the nod for the most valuable player award.

SUMMARY OF 1966-1967 SEASON IN BOYS BASKETBALL

The inexperienced Trojans won 7 of 20 games during the season.

Seniors Jim McGonigle (14.1 point average), George Lansink (9.3), Bob Thies (9.0), and Dale Mohr (7.1) led the offensive attack.

The four leading scorers were backed by seniors Tom Hargens, Roger Thrailkill, Jerry Einspahr, and Jim Irwin. Many different players saw considerable action with 10 Trojans playing in more than 30 quarters.

Valuable experience was gained by juniors Scott Bergren and Gordon Boerner and by sophomores Clayton Bergren, Dan Griffin, and Chuck Friday.

Jim McGonigle has distinguished himself as one of Odebolt-Arthur's outstanding shooters by hitting 45.6 per cent on field goals and 82.8 per cent from the foul line. During one stretch, Jim made 30 of 31 from the free-throw line with 22 straight in one span.

Bob Thies, a fine defensive player and rebounder, made Second Team All-Maple Valley Conference; Jim McGonigle placed on Honorable Mention.

SUMMARY OF 1966-1967 SEASON IN GIRLS BASKETBALL.

The girls have to be commended for the spirit and desire with which they went into every game they played. Hindered by inexperience and lack of height, the O-A girls nevertheless exhibited great desire, which led them to two victories.

The girls are young, and the squad loses only one player, Esther Streed, who was valuable as a top reserve and will be missed. However, the starting squad, which consisted of sophomores and juniors, will all be back. This, with the backing of the community, will lead to a greatly improved season next year.

Recognition for a fine performance would have to go to Tomi Page, the leading offensive player, who averaged 23.8 points per game and scored a total of 426 points and made honorable mention on the all-conference team; to Ann Hemer, who snared 102 rebounds, was always an outstanding defensive player, and who also made honorable mention on the all-conference team; to Joann Roeder, who is an exceptional ball handler, made a great change from forward to guard, and played real fine ball for the team at both jobs; to Shirley Mortensen, a 5'2" aggressive guard, who led the team in pass interceptions; and to Michelle Flynn and Geri Lingren, two fine sophomore forwards, who moved up to first team at midseason and improved with every game as starters. Along with them, the reserves contributed much to the welfare of the team.

Wrestling

The Trojan wrestlers swept through the Maple Valley Conference with only one loss and ended the year with an 8-4 season tally.

At the sectional meet at Ida Grove, the grapplers accumulated 52 points for 4th place. Dennis Linster and Rodney Einspahr advanced themselves to the District meet at Audubon.

Co-Captains Rodney Einspahr and Dennis Linster were the pace-makers for the team. Linster had an almost perfect record, having been felled only once during regular season wrestling.

Keith Fineran pinned six of his twelve opponents and led the team in individual points. Fineran executed some of the fastest falls on the team.

The reserve wrestlers ended the season with a 6-5 mark. Charles Lashier, Rudy Thies, and John Neal were the team leaders.

Spring Track

Seventy-four boys (8 seniors, 25 juniors, 15 sophomores, and 26 freshmen) participated in the spring track program. A shortage of experienced lettermen made it necessary to use numerous freshmen and sophomores in varsity competition.

Leg injuries hampered G. Lansink in his final year of competition. Despite the injuries, he was able to come within three-tenths of a second of breaking both the 220- and 440-yard dash records of the school.

The combination of experienced distance runners and hurdlers, young sprinters, and a flock of young field-event men will provide a solid nucleus for the next several years.

The Trojans placed fourth in the Maple Valley conference tournament at Mapleton. In the Sectional golf tournament at Sac City, Odebolt-Arthur finished a respectable third place out of eleven teams participating.

Jim McGonigle and Jerry Einspahr had the top season averages with average scores of 43 and 44 respectively. Other top performances included Dean Einspahr with a season average of 45 and Rodney Einspahr with an average of 46.

Letter winners include Ellen Einspahr, Michelle Flynn, Julie McGonigle, and Laurie Lundblad. Eight girls participated in the golf program.

Baseball

The Trojan Baseball Team played two games in the spring tournament and twelve games in the summer season. The overall record was eight victories and six defeats. Four of the losses came from our nearest rivals, Lake View-Auburn and Wall Lake. The biggest problem was a lack of pitching depth which was caused by several sore arms among the hurlers.

Probably the greatest individual accomplishment came against Sac City when Ron Boerner hit two home runs in the first inning, one with the bases full. Nineteen boys lettered in summer baseball.

Batting averages of boys who participated in three or more games:

Scott Bergren	.125	Rod Einspahr	.229	Dennis Linster	.200

Mrs. Dowey and her guests

One-Act Play

The Reverend presents an angry soldier to his "mother."

Kenneth proposes for a mother.

"THE OLD LADY SHOWS HER MEDALS" by J. M. Barrie

CAST

Kenneth Dowey	Jim Oxendale
Mrs. Haggerty	Jane Youngers
Mrs. Tully	Barbara Girvan
Mrs. Mickleham	Gloria Levin
The Reverend	Alan Olson

SYNOPSIS

Mrs. Dowey, a lonely old London charwoman, feels left out of the patriotic fervor of W. W. I because she has no son at the war. One day she sees an article in the paper mentioning a Private, Kenneth Dowey and decides to solve her problem by giving this young man's name as that of an imaginary son. Her problem proves to be far from solved when her minister shows up one day with young Kenneth in tow. They just happen to interrupt a hen party at which all the ladies present are bragging about their sons, including Mrs.

Dowey.

Angry at being claimed as a son, lifelong orphan Kenneth finds his anger turning to wonder, to happiness, as he and Mrs.
Dowey chat over tea.

Mrs. Dowey still wants a son, and Kenneth now sees what he has missed in not having a mother. He proposes for her to be his mother, and she joyfully accepts, making both happy with their new "family."
