

The Trojan

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry, no matter how small, should be recorded to ensure the integrity of the financial statements. This includes not only sales and purchases but also expenses and income. The document provides a detailed explanation of how to categorize these transactions and how to use the accounting cycle to ensure that all entries are properly recorded and balanced.

The second part of the document focuses on the preparation of financial statements. It outlines the steps involved in calculating the net income for a period and how to present this information in a clear and concise manner. The document also discusses the importance of comparing the current period's results with those of the previous period to identify trends and potential areas of concern.

The final part of the document addresses the issue of closing the books at the end of the accounting period. It explains how to transfer the balances of the temporary accounts to the permanent accounts and how to ensure that the books are closed in accordance with the applicable accounting standards. The document concludes by emphasizing the importance of regular audits and reviews to ensure the accuracy and reliability of the financial information.

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry, no matter how small, should be recorded to ensure the integrity of the financial statements. This includes not only sales and purchases but also expenses, income, and transfers between accounts.

The second part of the document provides a detailed explanation of the accounting cycle. It outlines the ten steps involved in the process, from identifying the accounting entity to preparing financial statements. Each step is described in detail, including the necessary documents and procedures to follow.

The third part of the document discusses the various methods used to record transactions. It compares the double-entry system with the single-entry system, highlighting the advantages and disadvantages of each. It also explains how to use T-accounts to organize and summarize the data.

The fourth part of the document covers the process of adjusting the accounts. It explains why adjustments are necessary and how they are made. It discusses the different types of adjustments, such as accruals, deferrals, and depreciation, and provides examples of how to record them.

The fifth part of the document discusses the preparation of financial statements. It explains the different types of statements, such as the balance sheet, income statement, and statement of cash flows, and how they are prepared. It also discusses the importance of comparing the results of the current period with those of the previous period.

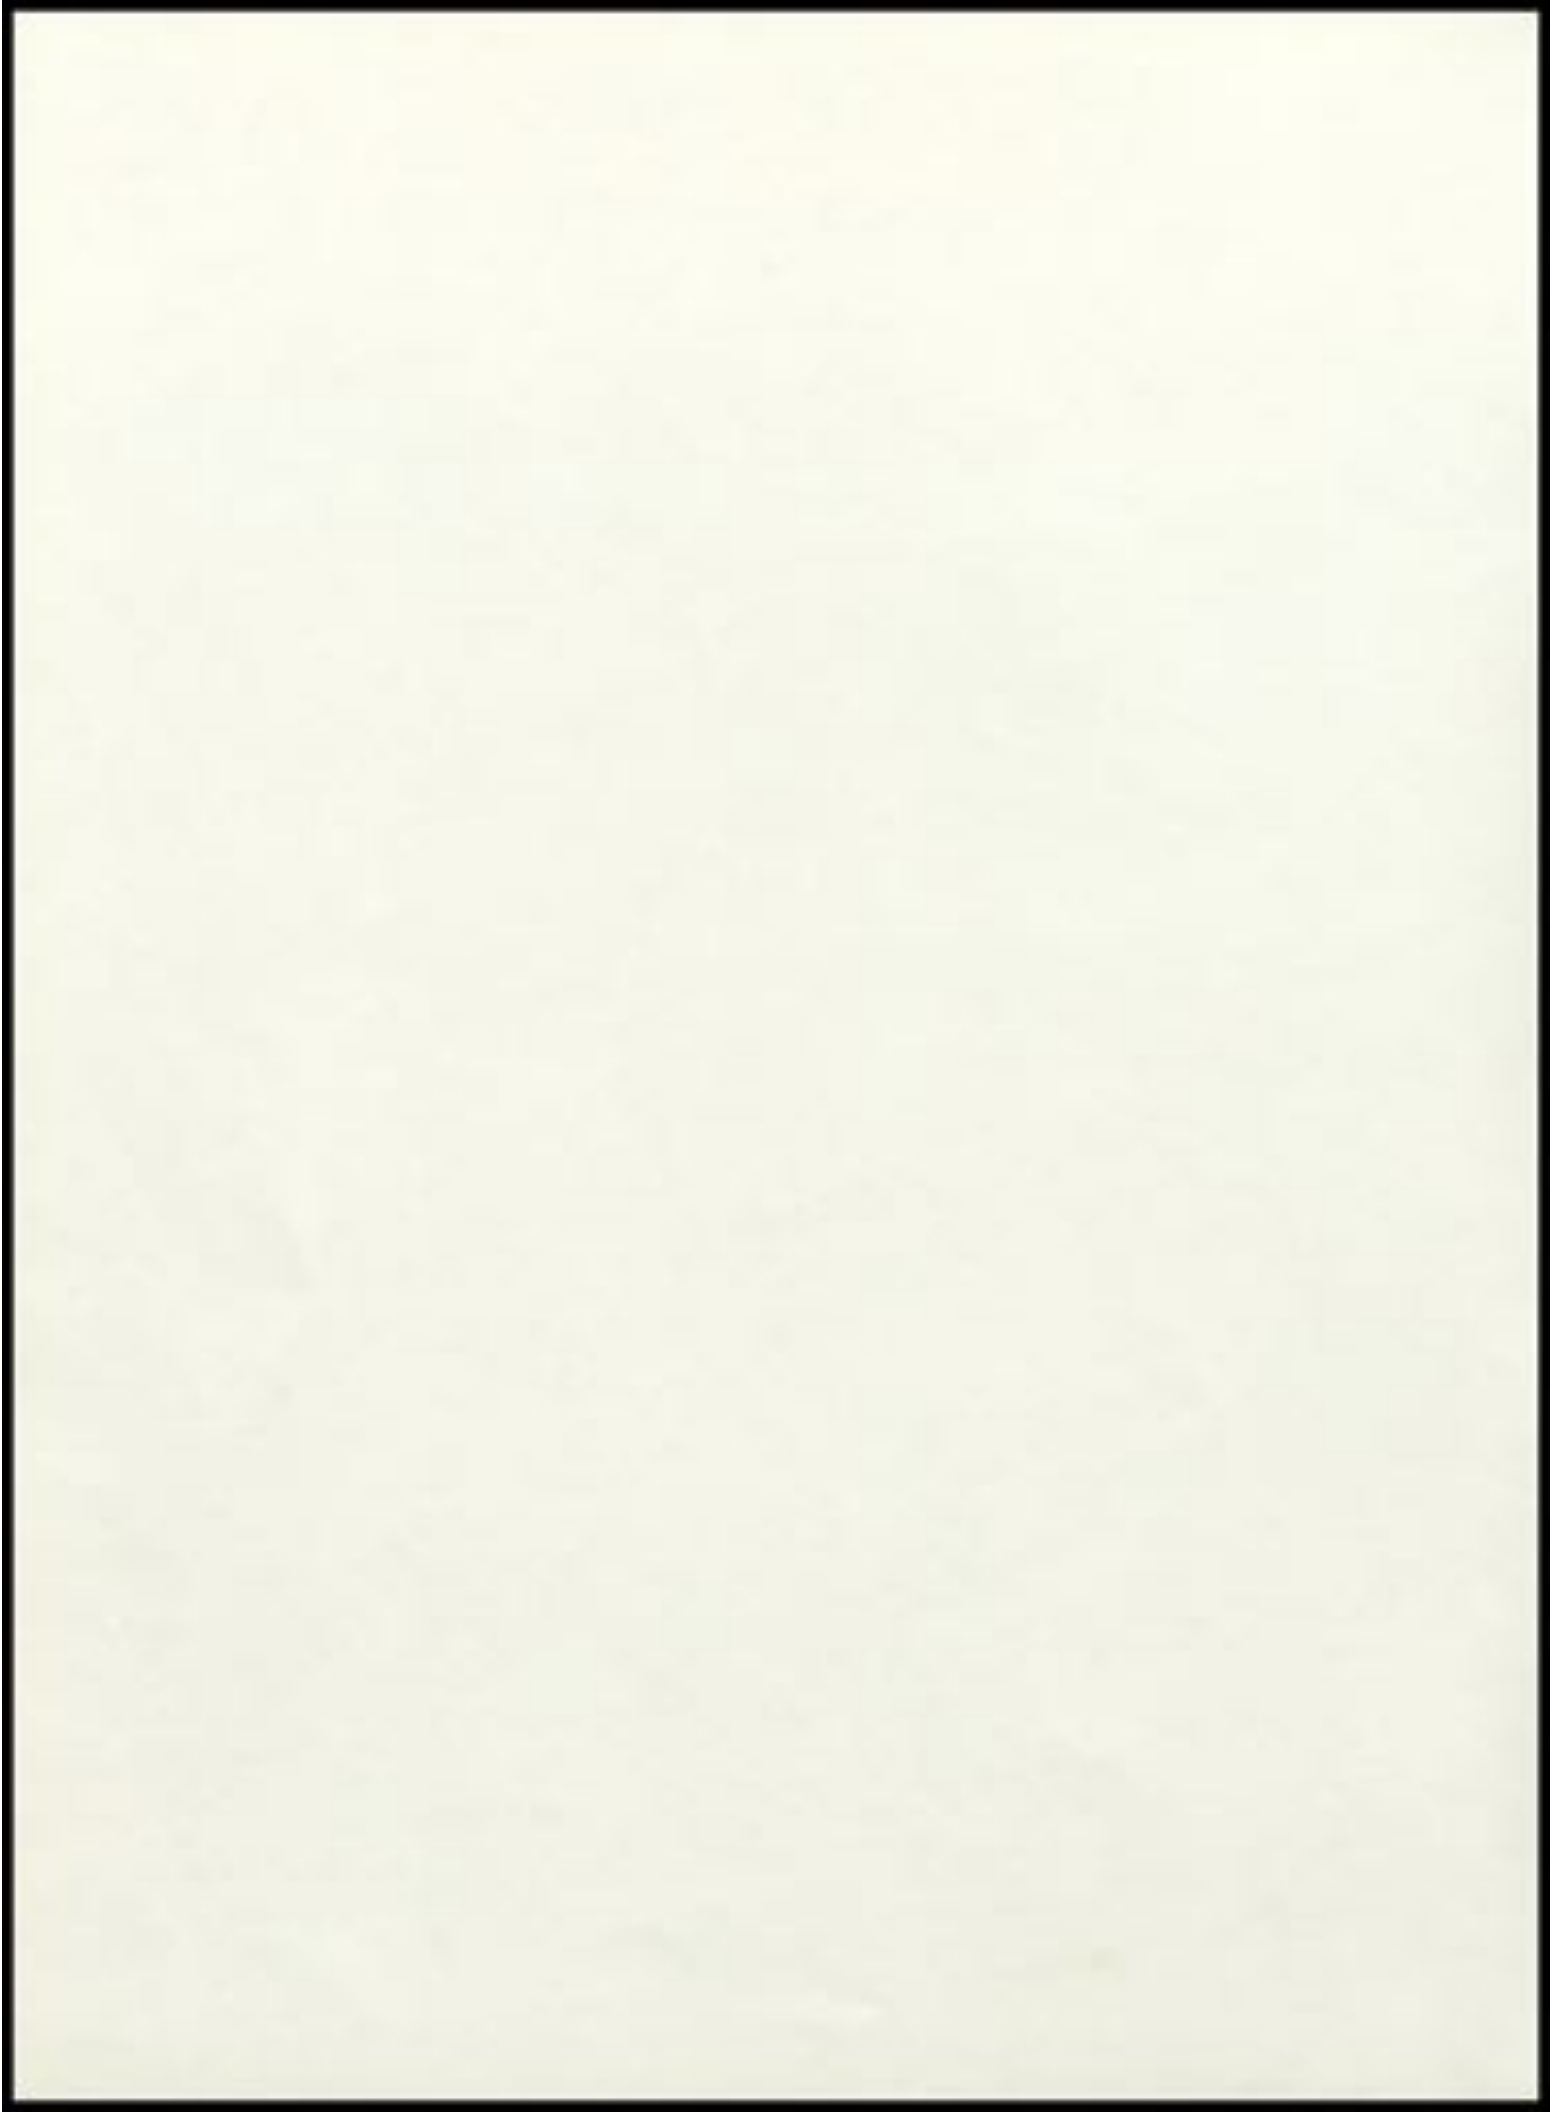

The sixth part of the document discusses the importance of internal controls. It explains how internal controls can help to prevent errors and fraud, and how they can be designed to ensure the accuracy and reliability of the financial information.

The seventh part of the document discusses the role of the accountant. It explains the different types of accountants, such as tax accountants, cost accountants, and management accountants, and the skills and knowledge required for each.

The eighth part of the document discusses the future of accounting. It discusses the impact of technology on the profession, such as the use of computers and software, and the need for accountants to stay up-to-date with the latest developments.

The ninth part of the document discusses the ethical responsibilities of accountants. It explains the importance of honesty, integrity, and objectivity, and how these principles should be applied in the workplace.

The tenth part of the document discusses the importance of communication skills for accountants. It explains how accountants must be able to communicate effectively with clients, colleagues, and management, and how this can be achieved through clear and concise writing and speaking.

This 1988-1989 Trojan Yearbook tells the story of a year in the life of a small school in Iowa. It will take an interested reader from Homecoming to Graduation, with many stops along the way. This yearbook is not ordinary — it preserves the memories of today so that they may be relived in the years to come. It is unique in the fact that it will be the last one untouched by the changes in education, such as sharing, occurring in the next few years. Even though this book depicts the life surrounding Odebolt-Arthur, every second that passes there are world events that either directly or indirectly affect the Odebolt-Arthur community. The significant events happening in 1988-1989 were:

Florence Griffith Joyner, hit the track scene like fireworks, won three races and became the sensation of the Olympic Games.

The marriage and divorce of heavyweight champ Mike Tyson and TV actress Robin Givens made headlines with their constant quarrels and tantrums.

The space shuttle Discovery, equipped with more than 400 design changes, was successfully launched.

The Chicago Cubs became the last team to install lights when they took the field for their first night game in the 73-year history at Wrigley Field.

Rainman, starring Dustin Hoffman and Tom Cruise, was named Best Movie of 1988.

Billionaire Donald Trump was busy making a name for himself as a high-spirited entrepreneur.

Abortion was a very controversial issue as the Supreme Court had to decide a case that could overturn the landmark Roe v. Wade decision of 1973.

The tragic oil spill of the oil rig, Exxon Valdez, left the Alaskan environment devastated and millions of people outraged.

Former White House aide Oliver North was found guilty of conspiracy.

Baseball great Pete Rose was accused of betting on baseball games.

Students in Beijing, China, demonstrated against their government for a more democratic nation.

The greatest comedienne of all time, Lucille Ball, died at the age of 78.

The National Honor Society, in keeping with their tradition of leadership, provided many services this year. Every quarter the Honor Society honored two deserving students as Good School Citizens. Their volunteer work included giving tours at the eighth grade orientation and serving at the fall Dinner Theater. The money raised at the Dinner Theater was donated to the Kids-With-A-Wish Foundation. Among these services, they also prepared a faculty Appreciation Breakfast in May. New members were tapped in on Feb. 28. They were Jason Turin, Patti Paulson, Toni Reis, Jill Drake, Deb Stull, and Suzanne Fineran. Initiation was held on March 14th.

The M.O.C. (Multi-Occupations Cooperative) is one of the vocational education programs at Odebolt-Arthur. One of the goals of the M.O.C. Program is to provide an opportunity for students to work part-time while completing their senior year of high school. This year the students attended classes in the morning, then reported to their respective employers in the afternoon for the work experience portion of the program. The M.O.C. students attended a Fall Leadership Conference in October in Des Moines, sold candy bars for organization expenses, and sponsored the Employer-Appreciation Dinner in May. The students and cooperating employers in this year's program are James Anderson, Charles Lindberg Farm, Odebolt; Keith Belstene, Howard Johnson Farm, Ida Grove; Mike Miles, Farmers Coop Elevator, Odebolt; Val Porter, Kid's Kutter Day Care, Ida Grove; and Jamie Rohlf, Peterson Repair, Odebolt.

Media lab was very busy this year. Our biggest project was doing the newspaper. This year we tried to add many of our original writings to our weekly issues. The co-editors of the Trojan Triumph were Mia Cranston and Jayne Pudenz. Our second project was a fund raiser. We sold Valentine's ads to the students to be printed in the Chronicle. We used the money to make a senior slide show played to "Through the Years" and "It's Hard to Say Good-bye." It was shown at prom and at Awards Day.

Student Council

The Student Council began the 1988-89 year successfully. As always the Student Council got Homecoming underway with the Chamber of Commerce supplying the prize money for the week. The Homecoming dance was delayed by the juniors. Next on their agenda was the celebration of Christmas. They decorated the tree in the library and they also held a dance. Then they decided to earn some money by putting up posters on the hallway Connection boards. At the end of the year they had a party by going to a movie and out for pizza. The projects of this year's Student Council were achieved with a lot of determination.

The 1985-86 Trojan Yearbook staff was kept very busy. Kelly Cranston, Kari Snyder, and Brenda Lippincott were the senior editors and were helped by several others: Dave Mattes and Chris Threlkill, darkness; Toni Reis and Stephanie Hotle, junior editors; Jill Drake, Suzanne Fineran and Amy Krusenstjerna, sophomore editors.

We were also assisted by Karen Cranston in photography and by Rusty Wilke in many various areas. Heidi Ulrich cropped all of the senior pictures, and Patti Paulson proofed pages and organized final copies.

The cooperation and hard work of all participants made the deadline easier to achieve.

JETS (Junior Engineering Technological Society) is an AEA sponsored event in which Area 3 schools compete in academic testing in English, math, computer science, physics, chemistry, and biology. O-A ranked third in Class C out of ten teams. The following are to be congratulated also for their outstanding individual performances: Patti Paulson scored 1st in Class C and tied for 6th in State; Chris Thrailkill scored 2nd in Class C and 10th overall in English; Dave Mattes scored 2nd in Class C and tied for 6th in State; Kelly Cranston scored 3rd in Class C in physics.

The 6th Grade Math Bee team placed first in the regional competition and had two medalists, Andrew Hedden and Mindy Hurley. In State competition, Andrew Hedden placed first overall, winning a trophy. The team placed sixth. The 7th Grade Math Bee team placed 6th at the regional competition. The 8th Grade Math Bee team placed first in the regional competition with two medalists, Amy Neville and Tomi Germar. At State the team placed twenty-ninth.

The M.S. Spelling Bee team traveled to Fort Dodge in February to participate in the AEA 3 regional competition.

A Dedication to Dorothy Purdy

Students and music were two of the most important things in Dorothy Purdy's life. She shared her love of music with many, many students throughout the years.

Besides the time spent with her own piano students, Dorothy dedicated many hours to accompanying soloists at the Odabolt-Arthur High School and OAMS. She not only accompanied them, but she helped them to perfect their performance to the point that a majority of those she accompanied received 'one' ratings at contest.

The casts of the O-A musicals depended on Dorothy for mastered accompaniments, as the piano scores for the musicals were more than most high school pianists could handle.

And we will certainly miss her at graduation! She and Frank Shaw played the "Pomp and Circumstances" for every graduation from 1964-1987.

Dorothy Purdy contributed so much to the Odabolt-Arthur Community School and she will be greatly missed by all whose lives she touched with music.

1989 brought with it students from three different countries visiting Odebolt-Arthur High. Ilona Schuffels added a little French to our vocabulary, Julie Laage-Petersen showed us the Danish way of life, and Akiko Obata was everyone's friend from Japan.

Ilona's host family consisted of Bob, Sus, Troy, Todd, and Tiffany Clouse. Coming from Paris, Ilona met a different setting in Odebolt, but she said that a lot of things are very much the same as in France. Ilona came to Iowa wanting to experience the "real" America and often commented on the people and how nice they were.

Julie's host family consisted of Kyle, Stephanie, Heidi, Chris, Hope, and Holly Ullrich. Life in a small town was not that new to Julie because she came from a small town just outside of Copenhagen, Denmark. Julie's frank honesty and unique style made her an unforgettable friend.

Akiko's host family consisted of Richard, Shari, Jodi, Jamie, Joey, and Jennifer Rohlf. Akiko enjoyed being a student of Odebolt-Arthur because in Japan she attended an all-girls' school. Akiko will be remembered by her ready smile. Akiko could brighten anyone's day.

Spending the 1988-1989 school year at Odebolt-Arthur High was a time these three young ladies will never forget. All of them had a few adjustments to make: trying to learn a new language, adjusting to a new family, eating new foods, spending their free time, and trying to make it through a year of American History. They will be remembered by all who knew them at O-A.

On September 23, a new King and Queen were crowned in downtown Odebolt. Troy Johnson was crowned King and Kari Snyder was crowned Queen. The royal court consisted of Brian Buehler, Rick Lundberg, Rusty Wilke, John Larson, JoDee Lange, Rachel Gustafson, Brenda Lippincott, and Channing Profit. Abby Schroeder and Todd Hoaglund were the Kindergarten attendants and were escorted by Iona Schuffels, Julie Lange-Peterson, and Akiko Obata. Jayne Pudenz was the announcer for the festivities.

After the coronation, Troy and Kari announced the winners of the skits and windows. First place honors of the skit competition went to the seniors, second place was earned by the juniors, third place went to the sophomores, and fourth place was awarded to the freshmen. The freshmen received first place for their window, second place went to the sophomores, third place went to the seniors, and fourth place went to the juniors.

The spirit of Homecoming '88 began with the traditional dress days of the week. Punk Day started off the week inspiring "wild and crazy" feelings. Tuesday was Generic Day, Wednesday was Dress Down/Hat Day, Thursday was Dress Up Day, and Friday was Purple and Gold Day.

Super Class Night arrived with each grade ready to go to war and battle it out for the honor of being the true Super Class. The competition was fierce and the victory hard won, but the seniors came out on top to claim the championship. The fun and excitement continued on down to the bon-fire with cheers by the cheerleaders and a pep talk given by Jeff McDonough.

Something started by the Class of '88 was continued. It added to the spirit and may even be a new tradition at O-A. Painting on cars and the windows of Mrs. Becker's and Mrs. McDonough's rooms was done in purple and gold to liven up Homecoming Week.

Friday began with the O-A pep band marching through the halls of the elementary and high school. The cheerleaders chanted their cheers with the support of the student body. At 2:00 p.m. the afternoon festivities started with the presentation of the royal court in the gym. Then everybody was entertained with the skits of 5th, 8th, 10th, 11th, and 12th grade. The senior skit, featuring O-A's very own Beetlejuice and Hans and Franz, will be remembered for many years to come. Cheers and chants by the cheerleaders followed.

The excitement then moved downtown for the coronation of the 1988 Homecoming King and Queen. After the presentation of the roses to the Queen by James Anderson from the football team, a pep talk was given by Mick Menage to inspire the Trojans on to victory.

The kick-off between O-A and Ida Grove began at 7:30 p.m. The Trojans came out on the field fighting and were leading the Hawks at halftime. But the victory was not for the Trojans as Ida Grove came back to defeat them. Even though the Trojans did not come out on top, they were thought of no less because they did their best and gave it their all.

Homecoming '88 was brought to a close with the Homecoming Dance organized by the student council. The music was provided by a DJ and was open to the public. A good time was had by all and there are many fond memories to look back on.

On April 22, 1989, the Junior/Senior Prom took place. "Hold Onto the Nights" was the theme. After the meal at the Arthur Community Building, Mia Cranston welcomed everyone and Kari Snyder gave the response. The media lab class then gave their slide show presentation "Through the Years/It's Hard to Say Good-bye" as a tribute to the seniors. The dance was held in the MPR from 9:00-12:00. There was an after-prom party at the Carroll Rec Center to end Prom '89.

For contest this year, the vocal students had to work very hard. IHSMMA is upgrading its requirements for its ratings and it was tough to receive a Superior rating. Two students achieved that rating at contest, Emily Fox and Ilona Schuffels.

A II rating is classified as Excellent. Receiving this rating were three duets: Danae Olson and Matt Evans; Emily Fox and Shannon Reinhart; Channing Profit and Heidi Ullrich. The soloists who received an Excellent rating were Shannon Reinhart, Danae Olson, and Doug Dublinske. This year the chorus also entered a Madrigal. The group received an Excellent rating. The members of the Madrigal were Heidi Ullrich, Dee Dee Bengford, Wylene Redenius, Scott Menage, Jeff Fineran, Danae Olson, Stephanie Hotle, Channing Profit, Matt Evans, and Doug Dublinske.

All School Play

Something new in the drama department showed up this year. On Friday, November 4, 1988, a dinner theatre was presented. Murder On Center Stage was the title of the play. The meal was catered by Staley Food Service of Charter Oak with members of the National Home Society serving the meal. Dinner music was provided by the Mixed Chorus with Mr. Benson and Mrs. Votroek on the piano.

The musical this year at O-A was a tremendous success. With over 35 participants in one way or another, we had a lot of fun.

You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown was the musical production. Through the combined efforts of the directors, Mrs. Palmer and Mr. Holden, and the pianist Holly Larson, not to mention the extreme hard work of the entire cast and crew, we overcame all of the obstacles and presented a fine show.

The cast included:

The 1988 football season was a successful one for the O-A Trojans. They finished with a 6-3 record overall and a 5-3 record in conference play. This was good enough for a fourth place finish in the conference standings.

The Trojan JV team finished the season with a record of 1-5 and showed a lot of improvement during the year.

Several O-A Senior Trojans received all-conference recognition for their outstanding performance in 1988. They were: Rick Lundberg - 1st team offense; Rusty Wilke - unanimous 1st team defense; James Anderson - 1st team defense; Brian Buehler - unanimous 1st team offense; Troy Johnson - 1st team place kicker; Glenn Barker - 2nd team offense; Fred Anderson - 2nd team defense; Dave Mattes - 2nd team defense; Johnny Larson - honorable mention.

Rick Lundberg was also selected to the Class 1A Iowa Football Coaches' Association, First Team All-State Academic Football Team and to the Des Moines Register Class 1A Second Team All-State Offense.

The Odebolt-Arthur Middle School football team consisted of twenty-one young athletes. In addition, four young men contributed their talents and efforts as managers. This year's team tallied a 3-2 record. The young Trojan gridsters notched up victories over Sac City (12-6), Lake View-Auburn (28-6), and Ida Grove (12-0). The Trojans fell to Galva-Holstein (7-0) and Wall Lake (27-0).

The O-A Netties finished the volleyball season with an overall 5-17-1 record and a 1-7 finish in the conference, placing 8th. The youthful Trojanette squad held their own against more experienced teams during the course of the season and will return a strong nucleus for the 1989 fall campaign. Two Netties were honored on the Maple Valley Conference team - Mia Cranston was selected for Second Team while Channing Profit garnered Honorable Mention honors. Special awards were presented to the following: Team Captain - JoDee Lange, Team MVP - Kristin Johnson, Most Improved and Coaches Award - Jennifer Turin, Best All-Around - Mia Cranston.

The Trojanettes of OAMS finish another season of great volleyball. The eighth grade compiled a 5-1 record with sweeps over LV-A, Battle Creek, Ida Grove, Crestland-Schaller, and Wall Lake and a heartbreaking loss to Galva-Holstein 1-2.

The seventh grade compiled a record of 4-2 with wins over Battle Creek, Crestland-Schaller, Ida Grove, and Galva-Holstein and losses to Wall Lake and LV-A. The 'Netties ran the 5-1 offense.

Both teams showed determination, improvement, enthusiasm, and team spirit throughout the season. The young 'Netties will continue to develop a strong sense of confidence in the game of volleyball.

The Odebolt-Arthur Trojans completed a successful basketball season with a 10-8 over-all record. Seven senior players will be missed a great deal for the hard work and hustle they have contributed to the basketball program.

O-A finished in the upper division of a very tough Maple Valley Conference. The Trojans were 5-3, tied with Westwood for fourth place behind co-champions Kingsley-Pierson and Galva-Holstein at 7-1, and West Mozaona at 6-2.

Senior Rusty Wilke was named to the Maple Valley All-Conference First Team for the 1988-89 season. Senior Brian Buehler received Second Team honors while John Larson was Honorable Mention. Other team awards went to Rusty Wilke - Most Valuable Player, Troy Johnson - Most Improved Player, and to Brian Buehler - Coach's Award.

Improvement throughout the year was shown by all members of the seventh grade team. We worked on improving our fundamentals, and the team ended the season with a 3-3 record. This hard work should help improve the team for next season.

With only five players to finish the season, the eighth grade team did a super job. They came through and worked hard in each game. They finished the season at 1-6, but they were competitive in all the games.

The 1988-1989 basketball season for the OAMS Trojanettes was successful both in the record book and in the development of the youth. The young Trojanettes in both the seventh and eighth grade developed skills in the defense and offense courts throughout the season. The seventh grade Trojanettes compiled a 5-2 record and the eighth grade Trojanettes compiled a 7-1 record. The eighth grade Trojanettes look forward to playing next year at the high school level and attending the camps to continue to grow in the skills of basketball. The seventh grade Trojanettes will return next year to compete and try to avenge their losses this year by going to some camps and improving in their skills.

The high school wrestlers put together a winning dual season despite an incomplete varsity squad. Three of the Trojan grapplers were injured early in the season; however, the matmen gathered their composure and regained two of the injured regulars to go 7-2 after the Christmas break. Dave Mattes and Brian Pierce received All-Conference honors this season. Ted Fuoss finished first and Dave and Brian placed second at Sectionals, qualifying the three wrestlers for district competition. Dave finished second at Districts qualifying him for the State Wrestling Tournament in Des Moines.

Twenty young athletes contributed their talents and efforts toward a successful wrestling season. The Trojans' schedule included four dual meets and one triangular. Our young grapplers encountered foes from Ida Grove, Galva-Holstein, Carroll, and Maple Valley.

Although the squad was small, they received much experience which will help them next year. The team showed much dedication, determination, and hard work throughout the season.

The 1989 golf season was very successful with both the girls and the boys finishing first in the sectional and advancing on to the boys' district and the girls' regional. JoDee Lange was named First Team All-Conference for shooting one of the lowest scores at the conference meet. The boys' golf team qualified for the state meet and placed ninth over all, the first time in the school's history.

The Odebolt-Arthur Trojans completed the 1988 season with a 11-11 over-all record. O-A finished in fifth place in the Maple Valley Conference with a 3-5 record. For the eighth straight year the Trojans finished in the top four in the conference tournament, settling for a fourth place finish. Ted Rake, Rusty Wilke, Rob Wiese, Paul Lindner, and Rick Lundberg were given All-Conference honors for their efforts. Rake was named to the First Team at 2nd base, Wilke, Wiese, and Lindner on the Second Team as pitcher, outfielder, and catcher respectively, and Lundberg as Honorable Mention as an infielder.

Ted Rake was also named to the Second Team Utility All-District Team, Northwest Iowa by the Iowa High School Coaches Association.

Rake and Wilke were also chosen Most Valuable Players, and Thad Diersen was named Most Improved by the Trojan players. Paul Lindner received the Coach's Award.

Led by all-conference performers, Stacey Schmuckel, Patti Thayer, and Mia Cranston, the 1988 Lady Trojans had a very successful season. They became the first O-A softball team to win five conference games and to be seated first in the conference tournament. The '88 squad's 9-14 record also represents the highest win total since 1975 and the third highest ever.

The highlight of the season was the exciting 7-6 victory over Kingsley-Pierson. This was the first time that the Trojanettes had ever beaten the Pantherettes.

Nineteen Eighty Nine

We all have our own
separate pathways to take,
Our own destinations to choose,
We all have our own
contributions to make,
Our own special talents to use —
We all have our own
kind of life to pursue,
Our own kind of dreams
to be weaving . . .
And we all have the power to make wishes come true
As long as we keep on believing.
AMANDA BRADLEY

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry should be supported by a valid receipt or invoice. This not only helps in tracking expenses but also ensures compliance with tax regulations.

In the second section, the author provides a detailed breakdown of the company's revenue streams. This includes sales from various product lines and services. The analysis shows that while one product line is currently the primary source of income, diversification into new markets is necessary for long-term growth.

The third section addresses the company's financial health and liquidity. It highlights the need for a robust cash flow management strategy to ensure that all operational needs are met. The author suggests implementing a budgeting system to monitor expenses and identify areas for cost reduction.

Finally, the document concludes with recommendations for future strategic planning. It suggests that the company should focus on innovation and research and development to stay competitive in a rapidly changing market. Regular financial reviews and audits are also recommended to maintain transparency and accountability.
