93

On October 8, Jeff Godbersen and Hope Ullrich were crowned the 1993 king and queen. The king attendants were Andy Mortensen, Travis Mollhoff, David King, and Todd Lahe. Queen attendants were Kara Schofield, Mandee Lippincott, Lori Lindskoog, and Libby Carstensen. Lars Andersen escorted the kindergarten attendants: Jessica Clark and Kevin Down. Sherri Fineran announced for the day's activities. Unfortunately, the weather was less than satisfactory for the game. Rain and cold wind cut attendance, and also played a big factor in the outcome of the game. The Trojans lost to the Wildcats of Schaller-Crestland 14-0. Even though the outcome of the game was less than ideal, all were in good spirits for the dance following.

"Luann," under the direction of Linda Johnson, spoke to the heart and funny bone of everyone who is, ever was, or will be an adolescent. Luann, a freshman at Pitts High, was convinced that her horoscope meant that the school heart-throb was going to ask her to the school dance. The only problem was, he didn't even know she existed, until she tried out for cheerleader but became the school mascot instead.

Fine Arts

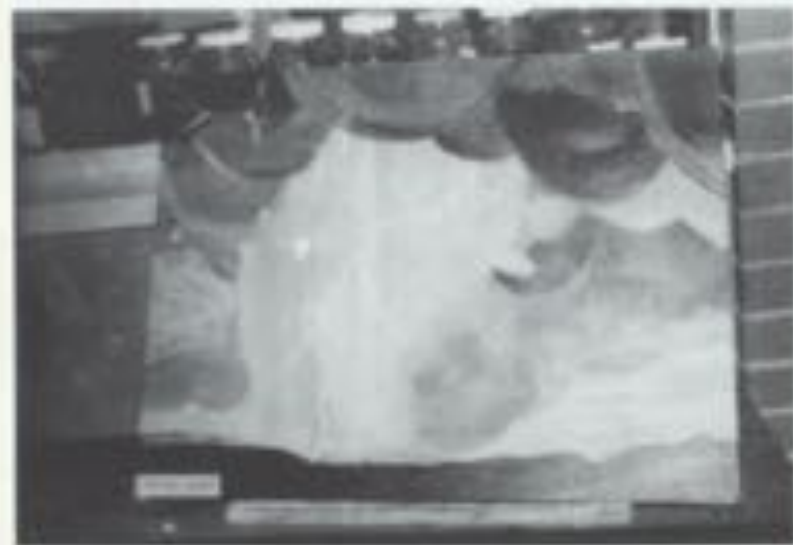

The OA Art Department had reason for several special recognitions and awards throughout the 1993-94 year. Student's whose artwork was chosen for inclusion in the March Youth Art Month Show (YAM), shown at the Iowa State Historical Building in Des Moines were, Ramie Uren (8th), Sara Lorenzen (2nd), and Kim Neumann (K). Along with YAM's state theme "Art Ties," OAMS had a contest to design a tie. Winners were, Jade Bettin, Kyle Hustedt, and Collin Votrobeck.

This year's Regional Art Show was hosted by OA in April. Seven schools participated. Jurors selected Mande Lippincott's fused glass jewelry as a medal recipient. Blue ribbon placings were earned by Teresa Gronwoldt, Amy Gronwoldt, Jeff Hoegh, Bryce Godbersen, and Mande Lippincott.

Teresa Gronwoldt's "Cosmic" entry was chosen as a select piece in the ISEA "Design a Decal" contest.

Three works were selected to be exhibited in the AEA 5 Show held at the Blanden Art Museum, Ft. Dodge. Those pieces were by Amy Gronwoldt, Teresa Gronwoldt, and Mande Lippincott.

Elementary art students eagerly awaited their show held April 14 when the main hallway was lined with magnificent creations. OAMS art students had their ceative works on display May 12. The Fine Arts Festival was held April 28 with high school student's work being showcased. OA Art's are alive!

The yearbook staff was busy again this year. Two new Quadra 610 Macintosh computers were purchased. The yearbook staff is paying for them through candy bar sales during the lunch hour. Sophomores Chad Becker, Clint Profit, Beth Pudenz, and Melanie Auen joined the staff. Chad and Clint were put to work in the darkroom where pictures were endlessly printed. Beth and Melanie were occupied at the computers. We said goodbye to six senior members: Cheryl Carlson, Cari Pudenz, Christi Rasmussen, Shari Streed, Travis Mollhoff, and Mandee Lippincott. The juniors, Steve Schofield, Jill Hemet, and Katie Wilke were gearing up for next year's annual. Everyone worked hard to make the yearbook a SUCCESS!!!

The National Honor Society began the 1993-94 school year with the induction of new members. These members are as follows: Sherri Fineran, Travis Mollhoff, Beth Pudenz, Christi Rasmussen, and Angela Scanlan. With the help of the new members the NHS collected the litter along the highway. During February the NHS had a fund raiser and donated $50 to charitable donations.

In the spring, they once again collected the litter along the highway. In April, the NHS was in charge of refreshments and tours for the eighth-grade orientation. Finally, new officers were elected and an installation ceremony took place for these new officers. They are: President, Jill Hemer; Vice President, Cherity Lindgren; Secretary, Angela Anderson; and Treasurer, Justin Flink.

Trojan Triumph

The 1993-94 Trojan Triumph staff worked hard all year writing articles for the Chronicle. The articles written by the students were published every week. During the second semester of school, the class made a slide show featuring the senior class. The slides were set to the songs: "Letting Go" by Suzy Boggus and "A Bad Good-Bye" by Clint Black and Wynona Judd. This slide show was presented at Prom, Awards Day, and at Graduation. This was the final class project.

The 1993 Odlebolt-Arthur Trojarett Softball Team came within one game of qualifying for the IHBGAU State Tournament in Fort Dodge. The OA "diamond ladies" fashioned the best record in OA softball history (24-6) before falling short in the Regional Championship Game in Storm Lake against Emmetsburg.

The Nettes were Tri-Champions of the prestigious Maple Valley Softball Conferences (tied with MV and KP) and also captured titles in the Sectional and WLVA "Mini" Tournaments. The local girls won all of their home contests (10) for the second consecutive year and have not lost on the home field since July 9, 1991.

Seniors Carrie Becker, Nici Cranston, and Tomi Germar along with sophomore Katie Wilke were named to the 1993 Maple Valley All-Conference Squad. The 3 seniors also served as the team's honorary captains.

Guards Andy Mortensen and Chris Hedden and forward Dave King led an improved team that dropped several very close games in the early season, but played hard in every game. Rebuilding continued in '93-'94 as the Trojan grapplers won three conference meets, including the first triumph over Maple Valley since 1973. Against West Monona, OA notched six consecutive falls and seven total in only eight matches wrestled. The sixth place finish in the conference was the highest since 1991.

Individually, Andrew Hedden set a school record for season and career wins by a junior, was named the team's most outstanding wrestler for the second time, and earned All-Conference honors along with Tyson Quirk and Travis Mollhoff. Hedden finished the season with two tournament titles and a district qualification, as did heavyweight Jim Fineran, who was the Trojans first sectional champ since 1991. Fineran was also the first Trojan to ever qualify for Districts in his first two seasons.

Senior captains Mollhoff and Jeff Wulf ended their careers with pins, and Wulf set a school record for most career dual matches wrestled.

Middle School Volleyball

This season the athletes learned and gained an understanding about the game of volleyball. The overhand serve, passing to the setter, setting, spiking, and blocking were all emphasized, not only in practices, but in games. The young "Nettes" as a team did quite well in learning these skills, but had a losing record. The eighth grade team went 3-3 overall on team A.

The seventh grade team had a record of 2-4. Participation in volleyball was very good with all but 2 girls involved in volleyball.

Sixteen eighth graders and fourteen seventh graders completed another busy gridiron season. In addition, two young men contributed their talent and efforts as managers. The eighth graders tallied up a 3-2 record while the seventh graders finished 1-2.

In the middle school football tradition, our young gridstors gave it their all and were very competitive in every game, right up to the closing seconds. We can all be very proud of how our young football players represented us.

The OAMS 7th and 8th grade Trojanettes participated in their inaugural season of 5-player hoops during the 1993-94 campaign. Both squads improved greatly throughout the season, as they developed their skills, as well as a better understanding of the game. The 7th graders compiled a 5-3 record, while the 8th tallied a 3-5 mark on the season.

Both teams had super seasons. There were a lot of good kids to work with. I think that they learned a lot and showed a great deal of improvement from beginning to end. The 8th graders went undefeated, which included a victory over GH. They were the only team to beat us last year. --

This year the OAMS wrestling team consisted of eleven eighth graders, seven seventh graders and fourteen mat maids.

This year's squad provided our fans with plenty of excitement as our young grapplers gave the word aggressive a new meaning when they took the mat. Many individuals had very impressive records and did well in the Saturday tournaments. Five members qualified for the state youth tournament.

1994 SEASON

The team was small in numbers, but big in heart. The members included: eighth graders Cassity Lindgren, Janna Hogue, and Stephanie Reinhart; and seventh graders Angie Schroeder, Heather Hansen, Angie Neumann, Gretchen Barker, Jeanette Paulson, Janene Arbegast, Bryanne Veit, and Katie Thayer. The team set out to improve with each meet. Key injuries to Jeanette Paulson and Angie Neumann and an illness to Janna Hogue slowed our progress. By the end of the season, the team was able to set a some of records.
